

ENERGY ADVISOR SERVICE

PROVIDING EXPERT RECOMMENDATIONS FOR YOUR NEXT HOME ENERGY IMPROVEMENT.

INFORMATION SHEET
COLORADO

Xcel Energy offers a free energy advisor service to our residential customers in Colorado to help you move from audit to action. Xcel Energy's expert energy advisors at CLEAResult will provide unbiased advice and guidance on next steps toward making your home more comfortable and less costly to maintain. They help with applicable rebates, incentives, contractors and best practices so you know you're making smart decisions that are right for your home.

Energy advisors will make your home energy upgrade process smooth, simple and successful. Our advisors are expert consultants who can:

- Provide unbiased advice and impartial guidance about energy upgrades
- Review your Home Energy Audit or help you schedule one
- Help identify and prioritize next steps for your home energy improvements
- Provide energy efficiency education and information
- Assist you with contractor bidding and selecting a contractor for energy upgrades
- Connect you with applicable rebates, financing, incentives, and help with the paperwork
- Connect you with additional Xcel Energy programs, such as AC Rewards, Solar*Rewards®, and Windsource®, among others.

If you've had a Home Energy Audit recently, you may receive a call or email from an energy advisor offering to review your audit with you.

Here's what homeowners are saying about CLEAResult energy advisors:

"My advisor was fantastic! She was super helpful, answered all of my questions, and was very prompt in responding to emails."

"Thank you for all of your thoroughness and assistance throughout."

"My advisor was very professional, knowledgeable and extremely helpful."
